The Sweden join the Rollerski World Cup Trepidation for the sprint in the city center of Trento

The Nations taking part to the Rollerski World Cup grow up to 10. The competition will take place next week end in Trento and up to the Monte Bondone, locations that organize for the first time such an important Rollerski event. Arrived to the secretary of the O.C. the entry form of the Sweden national team, and in particular of the three athletes who are fighting for the first positions in the World Cup: the current leader Robin Norum and his teammates Marcus Fredriksson and Alfred Buskvist.

These athletes have to look over their shoulders from the other combative aspirant, such as the Italian Nordic skier Dietmar Noeckler, Mattia Pellegrin and Luca Orlandi, and the rollerski specialists Alessio Berlanda, Emanuele Becchis, Emanuele Sbabo, Simone Paredi and Sergio Bonaldi besides the Norwegian Ragnar Bragvin Andresen and Ludvig Søgne Jensen. Arousing interest also for the Russian Evgenij Dement'ev, gold medal in the pursuit and silver medal in the 50 km to the Turin Olympic Games 2006. The last national team registered is the Germany with the two athletes Niklas Bender and Andreas Dilleuth.

Among the women the forecast sees as favorite the Belarus Valiantsina Kaminskaya taken into account her position in the general classification, with the Italian Lisa and Anna Orsago, who will try to hinder her.

The organization is managed from A.S.D. Charly Gaul Internazionale in collaboration with A.P.T. Trento, Monte Bondone, Valle dei Laghi.

The program of the two days competition foresees the judges meeting in Sala Rusconi in Piazza Fiera – Trento on 19th September at 11 a.m., at 12.30 a.m. the training, at 1.30 p.m. the qualifications of the sprint competition of the Rollerski World Cup, with the finals scheduled at 2.30 p.m..

Sunday the race will be up to the Monte Bondone. At 10.30 a.m. the start of the juniors competition from Vaneze and finish line in Vason after 4,7 km, and at 11.00 a.m. the senior competition from Candriai to Vason, 8,5 km. Award ceremony at 1.00 p.m.
